Gersh Academy Inc.

150 Broadhollow Road Ste 120, Melville, NY 11747
631-385-3342 • Fax: 631-427-6332

For children with neurobiological disorders, such as ADD/ADHD, Tourettes Syndrome, and autism spectrum disorders, achieving in school can seem fruitless. But, there is hope. That hope comes from a school that emphasizes on a child-centered approach: Gersh Academy. It understands the importance of community and emphasizes the process of how to help the student learn. Its philosophy is that children do well if they can.

Gersh Academy's programs are unlike anything your child has previously experienced. We create a team that incorporates educators, aides and certified specialists that work in concert to surround your child with a consistent, positive and supportive environment. Our intervention focuses on the cause of the behavior rather than the behavior itself. Our students are accepted and understood for who they are.

Inspired by Kevin Gersh, Founder/President who faced his own struggles in school with ADHD and Dyslexia; he took his natural ability to relate to kids and pursued a career in education. Our purpose is to allow students the opportunity to reach their full potential, to challenge their personal capacity and instill partnership among home, school and community. Our desire is to prepare our students for life.

Woodhaven Physical Therapy (WPT) was established in April 2003 in Woodhaven, Queens, by Melody T. Bautista, PT an immigrant from the Philippines.

Woodhaven Physical Therapy is committed to providing the highest quality rehabilitative care available to individuals who may have sustained any number of functional disabilities due to illness, injury or accident.

Functional disabilities may be defined as difficulties in performing either simple or complex activities of daily living due to pain, weakness, congenital or acquired deformity, limited mobility, decreased coordination, reduced stamina, sensory compromise, and / or deterioration of or limited development of cognitive function.

Woodhaven Physical Therapy will strive to keep an individual's rehabilitation program as abbreviated as possible in order to maximize that individual's wellness and to minimize the "sick role". This wellness perspective will include extensive instruction in home exercise programs and techniques to both address current deficits and to prevent future reoccurrences.

Individuals seeking care through WPT will be entitled to the respect ordinarily conferred to all other individuals regardless of age, beliefs, national or ethnic origin, or financial status. WPT will demonstrate a commitment to each individual client's goals for treatment, and will expend all reasonable efforts to achieve these.

WPT will personify the value of the physical therapy profession to other healthcare professionals and to the general community.
